

Vocational Assessment and Guidance

This service utilises a combination of pen and paper assessment tools (approximately 2 hours) in conjunction with a guided interview process (approximately 2 hours) to obtain critical information relevant to career determination, redirection and/or retraining. Both verbal and/or written feedback is available to the client upon completion of the assessment. The process is highly individualised and personalised, with follow up contact and mentoring available where appropriate.